

ANNUAL REPORT

July 1, 2012 – June 30, 2013

Installation of John Henry sculpture

Installation of Michael Dunbar sculpture

The Sioux City Art Center is a model public private partnership between the City of Sioux City and Art Center Association of Sioux City. Without the support of both, the Art Center could not offer the quality programs that we provide our community.

Greetings! I am pleased to report that the Sioux City Art Center had a good year. In addition to our regular program of exhibitions and educational offerings, we also moved one of our most visible events, Art Center's ArtSplash, to a new location. In 2012 the annual Labor Day weekend arts festival was held at Grandview Park. While the park is outstanding, offering an art deco band shell, the hills proved to be too difficult for many of our visitors. After the 2012 event, the Art Center's staff and boards decided to take a good look at what we wanted to achieve with the festival. Based on our common vision for growing the project, we decided to move the event to Riverside Park.

Riverside offered space to expand, plentiful shade, ample parking and a flat terrain. After ArtSplash 2013 was held at Riverside, all involved declared it a success. The artists, food vendors, and visitors all liked the new venue, with most noting that it was the best venue yet. In addition, the staff and volunteers felt Riverside was a good move and made managing the project much easier than the two previous sites.

The big event in our exhibition program was our seventh Blockbuster exhibition Leonardo da Vinci: Man Inventor Genius Man Artist Genius. The exhibition broke our individual attendance record for an exhibition with an admission fee, with over 18,000 visitors. As the year ended, the Art Center was set to open its eighth Blockbuster exhibition with Michael Dunbar Sculptures. The project featured an exhibition of Dunbar's sculptures in conjunction with the purchase of a major outdoor sculpture by the artist for the Art Center's front lawn.

Another important outdoor sculpture was also added to the Art Center with the placement of the monumental John Henry sculpture, Sioux City, at the northwest corner of the Art Center's campus. Both of these new outdoor sculptures are now lit at night, raising the visibility of the Art Center to those passing through our downtown. In addition, the Art Center has continued to partner with Sculpt Siouxland to enhance downtown Sioux City with outdoor sculpture. This growing collaboration has resulted in attracting more large-scale sculptures to the annual exhibition. The Sculpt Siouxland 2013 exhibition consists of 23 outdoor sculptures, including 13 that have been purchased for Sculpt's permanent collection.

The year 2014 will mark the 100th year anniversary of the Art Center. In 1914 a group of individuals founded the Society of Fine Arts with the mission of making art available to the public. They achieved their mission by presenting exhibitions in public spaces and providing art classes. While collecting was not part of the Society's goal, as individuals they did collect, and when they established the Sioux City Art Center in 1938 they donated works from their efforts to the Art Center. As part of its centennial celebration, the Art Center will publish a book on its history and its permanent collection.

While I highlighted only a few events, the following report provides information on the full extent of our programs. I look forward to reporting to you at the end of 2014.

Docent Program

Our team of twelve dedicated volunteer docents consistently attended informative and educational tours given at the beginning of every new exhibition by the director, curator and studio program coordinator. We are extremely grateful to the docents for conducting 144 tours, serving 3,212 children and adults. Included in these numbers is the ARTworks program, serving fifth grade students who receive free busing, a guided tour and an opportunity to create a piece of artwork based on the Grant Wood murals. There were 43 ARTworks tours with a total of 1,140 fifth-grade students.

Docent Program

Project SOAR

Student Opportunities for Art Research, held throughout the month of June, is intended for artistically-talented high school students who would enjoy and learn from an intense, fifteen-hour art workshop. This year's Project SOAR utilized the expertise of four highly qualified artists and instructors including: Mike Hill (ceramics), Susan Heggstad (2-Dimensional multi-media), Chris Holton (3-D multi-media) and Jodi Whitlock (portrait painting). Twenty-six students from nine area high schools took advantage of this program which is underwritten by the Art Center Association of Sioux City.

Youth Art Month Reception

Youth Art Month

In celebration of Youth Art Month, the Sioux City Art Center held its 24th Annual Juried Youth Art Exhibition for area high schools, from February 16 – April 7, 2013. This year's juror, Pauline Sensenig, thoughtfully chose 94 pieces for the exhibition out of 488 submitted artworks. The opening reception on Sunday, February 17 was extremely well received with 300 children and adults filling the atrium. Mayor Bob Scott, Superintendent Dr. Paul Gausman, Art Center Director Al Harris-Fernandez and Visual Arts Head Instructor Lance Hankins assisted in the presentation of awards.

Community requested Classes, Workshops and Outreach Programs

The Education Department hosted 26 community requested workshops throughout the year including the following groups: Girl Scouts; Boy Scouts; Upward Bound; Home School; Girls Incorporated; Empty Bowls project; Siouxland Food Bank; Jackson Recovery, Tracy Koch Daycare; Nodland School Special Needs; DARE Lock-in; The Red Cross; Building Blocks Day Care (Sergeant Bluff); Building Blocks Day Care (Outer Drive, Sioux City) Kinder Cottage Daycare, North Middle School Carnival, Wells Blue Bunny, Life Long Learning Program, Thrivent Financial and Beyond the Bell.

Education Gallery

The William T. Dible Hallway and the Metz Education Hallway on the second floor have been designated as spaces for hanging artwork created by students and faculty at the Art Center. The displays were changed a total six times throughout the year and included student art, class schedules and other art-related subjects, such as the elements and principles of art.

Artful Birthday Parties

The Art Center has hosted 28 birthday parties in the past 12 months. Under the direction of our inventive teachers, 337 participants created fun projects and memories.

ArtCamp 2012

This was the ninth year the Art Center has hosted ArtCamp. This year's camps were a huge success with 177 children attending. ArtCamp 2012 culminated with an exhibition of the children's artworks, and a reception on August 19, 2012. These works were selected by the children and displayed from August 19 – September 25, 2012, in the Education Gallery on second floor.

Classes and Workshops

During the 2012-2013 quarterly semesters, 83 adult and children classes were offered at the Art Center. A total of 1,454 students participated in the classes for a total of 8,210 teacher-student contact hours. Nearly all of the adult classes were available for graduate credit or teaching license renewal credit through Northwest AEA, Briar Cliff University and Morningside College.

Holiday Gift-making Workshops

Our annual Holiday Workshops were held December 8, 2012. Eight art projects and refreshments were offered free of charge to the public. Under the guidance of four instructors, 150 children and adults participated in this fun annual event.

Spring Break Create-a-thon 2013

Spring Break Create-a-thon 2013

The Spring Break Create-a-thon was a new offering this year that provided youth classes taught by Debra Marqusee and Karen Kinney. On April 23 – 25, 2013, twenty students (ages 9-14) attended painting, ceramic and 3-D classes at the Art Center.
